Beginner Youth Programs (Ages 2-7)

KinderMinis:

Introduce your "Mini" to skiing in a fun, welcoming environment designed for young skiers and their grown-ups. This playful program uses themed skill stations to spark curiosity and build confidence on snow. Through experiential learning, play, and guided discovery, children explore essential beginner skills such as sliding, balancing, and riding the handle tow. With a 3-to-1 "Mini"-and-adult to instructor ratio, each participant gets plenty of personal attention. This class is the perfect stepping stone to our Kinderblick and KinderClub programs.

Intermediate Youth Programs (Ages 6-17)

Ausblick Freestyle Team:

Ausblick's Freestyle Development Team is your ticket to taking your skiing or snowboarding skills—especially your air and style—to the next level. Our expert coaches work with riders on one or two planks, guiding you through freeriding on groomed terrain as well as jibbing and jumping sessions.

Throughout your time with us, coaches focus on building solid fundamentals and mastering the right techniques so you can ride confidently and stylishly. We'll assess your goals and create a safe, tailored progression plan to help you crush it—whether you're landing your first straight air or perfecting rail grinds. All of our coaches bring top-level freestyle experience and a passion for helping riders push their limits and have a blast doing it.

Snowsports Race Youth Programs (Ages 5-17)

Intro to Race:

Perfect for students eager to learn the basics of ski racing and set their sights on joining the Ausblick Race Team, this focused program runs over five weeks. The first four weeks concentrate on the core fundamentals of BERP—Balance, Edging, Rotary, and Pressure—using targeted skills and drills to challenge and accelerate each athlete's growth. Guided by USSA Skill Quest and PSIA principles, participants will enjoy night skiing through race gates under the expert coaching of Ausblick instructors.

The program concludes with a fifth-week final wrap-up, featuring a fun, celebratory race night where athletes receive coaching from Ausblick Ski Race Team coaches and Snowsports instructors, making every finish line a victory to remember.
